In not less than 50 words, describe the content of the story / book briefly.

Ostrich Boys follows three friends, Ross, Ben, and Charlie. After Ross' unexpected death, the other two embark on a journey to scatter his ashes at sea, facing challenges and growing along the way.

Write a brief comment or your impression of the book.

On their journey to Scotland, the boys experienced many difficulties and setbacks, such as Kenny losing his bag containing money and train tickets. They began to reflect on their friendships, and realised they were built on superficial things, and that they didn't know enough about Ross' true inner world.

The character I like most is Blake because during the journey, he showed courage and determination. The character I dislike most is Kenny because he sometimes appears impulsive and reckless in the books.

If I could rewrite the beginning / ending / any part of the story, I would make the following changes:

If I could rewrite the beginning, I would not have made Ross die. If he hadn't died, he and his friends could have supported and helped each other in the face of difficulties and challenges in life, growing together.
